Description

The Lady Sitness De Luxe office swivel chair has been specifically designed with the anatomical features of women in mind. The office chair features an ergonomic mesh backrest and a special seat surface, the latter offering 7 different tension and firmness zones to ensure maximum seating comfort. The Body-Balance-Tec® mechanism enables unique, three-dimensional seat movement, which strengthens the back muscles. The mesh backrest is available in 5 different colors. It comes with a black reinforced plastic base and castors suitable for carpeted floors. The price includes the height-adjustable armrests.
